

SPECIAL WASTE GUIDE

There are many items which should never go in your kerbside bins because they are dangerous to the environment, waste facilities and workers

CITY OF GOSNELLS RECYCLING HUBS

What can be accepted:

Aerosol cans

Mobile phones and chargers

Printer cartridges

Light globes

What can't be accepted:

Batteries

Other household hazardous waste

LOCAL DROP-OFF POINTS

City of Gosnells Civic Centre - 2120 Albany Highway, Gosnells | Amherst Village Library - 2 Holmes Street, Gosnells | Gosnells Library - 2232 Albany Highway, Gosnells | Mills Park Library - 86 Brixton Street, Beckenham | Thornlie Library - 1 Culross Avenue, Thornlie

HOUSEHOLD BATTERIES

B-cycle is a national battery recycling program designed to help keep batteries from our soil and waterways

B-cycle
Battery
Recycling

What can be accepted:

Alkaline batteries

Rechargeable batteries

Power tool batteries

Camera batteries

What can't be accepted:

Mobile phone batteries

Laptop batteries

Lead acid batteries

LOCAL DROP-OFF POINTS

Battery World - 1/1909 Albany Highway, Maddington
Bunnings Warehouse - 1816 Albany Highway, Maddington
Coles, Woolworths, Aldi and Foodworks

Scan the QR code for closest drop off point

OTHER HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE

What can be accepted:

Limited to 20kg or 20L per material type (Commercial waste not accepted)

Paint

Gas bottles

Household chemicals

Smoke detectors

Fire extinguishers

Flammable liquids

Engine coolants

Pesticides

What can't be accepted:

Asbestos

Motor Oil

Medicine

Sharps

Tyres

E-waste

Polystyrene

Cardboard

Clothing

Armadale Landfill and Recycling Centre
145 Hopkinson Road, Hilbert

Ranford Road Transfer Station
Lot 502 Ranford Road, Canning Vale

Scan the QR code for other drop off points

WASTE GUIDES FOR RECYCLING

Guides on How to Sort Your Waste

Available from:

City of Gosnells Civic Centre
City of Gosnells libraries (ask staff)
City of Gosnells website

Scan the QR code to download the Sort Your Waste guides in 16 different languages

For more information please contact Switch Your Thinking at mail@switchyourthinking.com

Recycle Right is a platform that provides educational and practical resources to help you manage your waste

Scan the QR code to go to Recycle Right website for an A-Z of waste and where it can go

