DAVE O'NEIL

OVERWEIGHT LIGHTWEIGHT

Fat funny man Dave O'Neil is taking brand new stand-up show, Overweight Lightweight on the road after playing to sold out audiences across the Melbourne International Comedy Festival and receiving some pretty spectacular reviews.

Dave O'Neil may call himself a lightweight, but with over 30 years of experience, his cheeky brand of humour has made him one of Australia's most-loved comedians.

With years of breakfast radio on Nova, frequent appearances on Spicks and Specks, a bunch of podcasts (Somehow Related with Glenn Robbins and The Junkees with Kitty Flanagan) and a reputation for taking any corporate gig he is offered, it takes a lot to throw this comedian off his game!

"One of our most accomplished stand-ups." – The Age

"Put simply, Dave O'Neil is a heavyweight comedian of the highest order." – ★★★★★ Theatre Matters

"He's fat, he's funny, he's just here for the Haigh's chocolate. A joyful way to spend an hour." – ★★★★★ Time Out

Monument

"The fuchsia is bright."

Edith Aldridge is the youngest woman to be elected leader of her country. In a lush presidential suite in a heritage-listed hotel, she has just 90 minutes to get ready for the biggest day of her life. Enter Rosie, a 22 year old makeup artist from the David Jones counter, sent to help Edith get camera ready. In Rosie's capable hands, this morning will be a breeze. So long as they both stick to the brief.

Sheehan's astute and entertaining script challenges the trivialisation of beauty therapy, exploring the role that makeup and fashion play in how we perceive and receive women in power.

Taking Liberty

Presented by Theatre 180

Directed by Stuart Halusz. Assistant Director Craig Williams.
Featuring Stuart Halusz, Luke Hewitt and Jarryd Dobson.

THEATRE 180, in collaboration with WA Museum, presents one of the greatest moments in Australian sporting history – the defeat of Liberty by Australia II in the 1983 America's Cup.

In an epic, against-the-odds finish to a best-of-seven race, Skipper John Bertrand led his crew to turn the tide from a 3-1 deficit in race five and claim victory in a nail-biting decider, one of the biggest comebacks in sporting history.

Combining the excitement of live theatre against a cinematic backdrop, Taking Liberty by Ingle Knight celebrates the moment in time which defined a nation and gave international prominence to our cultural identity and fighting spirit, ending America's 132-year dominance of the sport in what became known as the Race of the Century.

"Filled with colourful characters, drama and laughs aplenty, this play takes us back to the moment in time when Western Australia was put on the world map and the stage was set for the port city of Fremantle, where Australia II and her famous winged-keel now proudly hangs in our WA Maritime Museum, to shine." – Stuart Halusz, Artistic Director THEATRE 180
