I am a Southern River resident, and I humbly ask for your vote. I have proudly called the City of Gosnells home for over 20 years, raising my family here.

In 2004, I was honoured to be awarded WA Refugee of the Year. I now serve as the Secretary of the Afghan Australia Cultural Council and contribute to many other community organisations, building strong connections across cultural, social, and sporting groups.

I ask for your vote to improve our local area, and if elected, I will focus on listening to residents' concerns, acting on your suggestions, supporting local businesses, and helping Council to continue building our parks, aquatics, playgrounds, swimming pools, and shared community spaces while delivering for your family.

I am passionate about making the City of Gosnells a place where everyone belongs and thrives, with safer streets, better facilities, and stronger opportunities for all.
