As a serving City of Gosnells Councillor, I have for the most part lived in Thornlie since the mid-eighties. I am very conscious of how ratepayers' money is spent so I was delighted to initiate and progress a motion recently for holding all in-all out elections to reduce election costs by potentially a half a million dollars. This idea has now received critical support from the Minister for Local Government. As a long serving police officer who served in Gosnells, I have a lot of knowledge and experience to give back to our community. With my wife Catherine, we raised our three children here, volunteered and it's been my privilege to serve as a City of Gosnells Councillor for the last four years. My family connection to the City of Gosnells goes back to when my great-great grandparents, Bruno and Marie Klæbe settled in King Street Gosnells, where they established a farm and lived for decades. I know this area, I am one of you and I strive to be your local voice in local government.
