Self-employed Finance & Mortgage Broker (21 years). Having worked in the banking and finance industry for over 40 years, I know the costs of living and how people are affected, as I see it every day.

For 27 years, I have been an active Justice of the Peace. As a JP, I see the results of anti-social behaviour, drug addiction and crime in our community. This enables me to serve the community well by promoting policies that help keep people safe.

Chair of Canning Vale College Board since 2016
Board member of Astley Care Inc, focusing on aged care
