As a father to a young son, I understand the hopes and concerns families have for their children's future.

I believe in practical solutions, open communication and working together to build an inclusive future where every resident feels heard and valued.

If elected, I will work to strengthen community resources, create opportunities for all and improve safety through planning and local partnerships. Transparency and fairness will guide every decision as I help build a City of Gosnells that values everyone and looks confidently to the future.
