My name is Glenn Dewhurst, and I am proud to serve as your councillor for the City of Gosnells. A father of 3 daughters and a husband. I understand the needs of local families. With over 21 years as a veteran Police Officer and now working as a Forensic Investigator, I bring practical experience in safety and accountability. I founded the Black Cockatoo Conservation Centre (Kaarakin) and Wildlife Australia, showing my commitment to protecting our environment.

I founded the Safe Community Now initiative by organising the Maddington Crime Forum which has spread throughout our city and beyond. My focus is on safer suburbs, better services for families, improved mental health and aged care, supporting local sporting clubs, and backing community events such as car clubs and other community events that build local spirit. In my spare time, family is important to me as is friends, community and working on old four wheel drives. Our work is not done with 7 key projects id like to start.
