I've lived in the City of Gosnells for 28 years. I'm a local business owner in the inclusive employment space, Bachelor of Applied Science holder and a qualified commercial pilot. I've experienced countless set backs on my journey and gratefully accessed financial support from the Australian government during these times, although through slow and frustrating processing periods.

My message is simple, families with an intergenerational record of Australian tax contributions should receive a higher priority rating than new arrivals to our country when accessing government support for housing, financial assistance, healthcare and education.

If you want intergenerational Australians put first, and as a general sentiment agree with tougher penalties for violence against the Australian flag, please consider submitting your vote for me and I will stand for you. Thank you.
